Indianhead 1981/10 dollars

The hostages return home.

Voters select new Homecoming Queen

New Miss PSU.

Mechanical Bull thrills riders and nonriders alike.

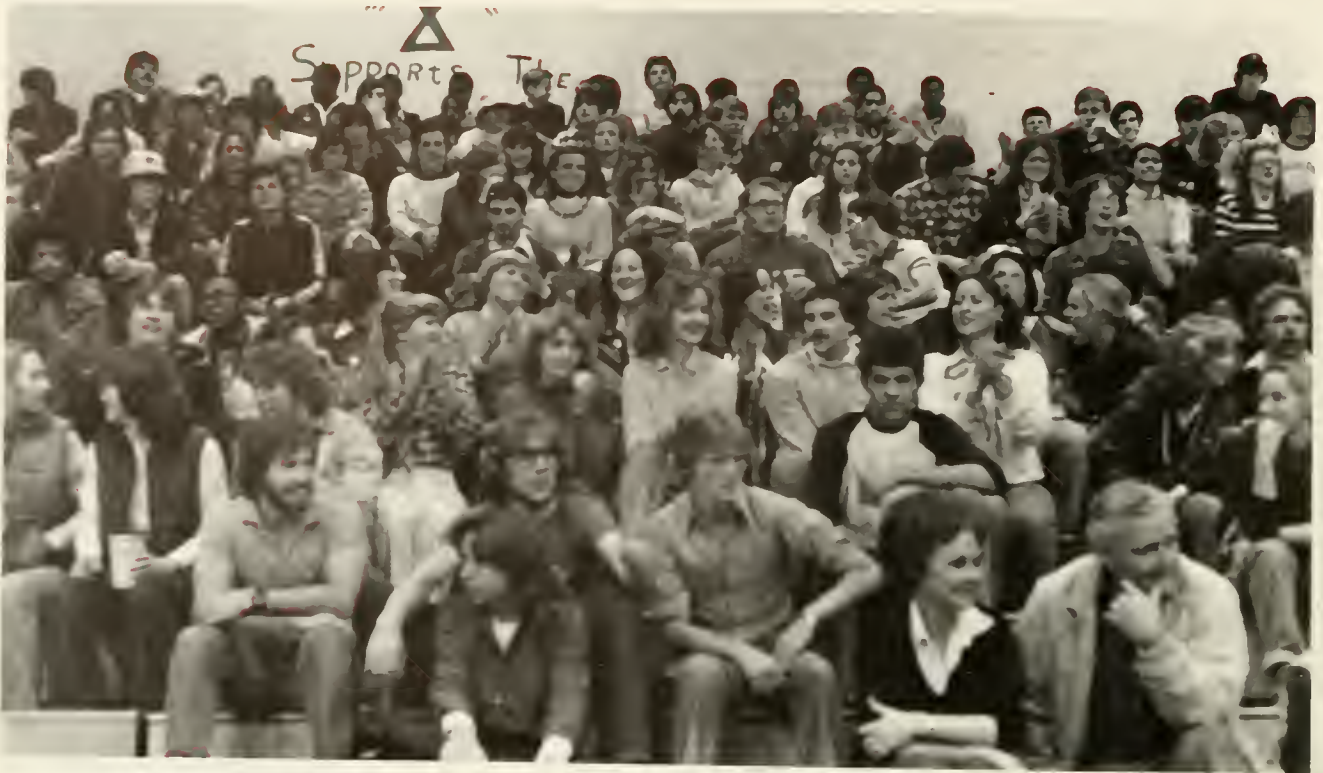

Lyceum series delights audiences.

Pi Kappa Phi Barbeque Supper is a success.

Fishing team successful in first year.

Sports teams hope for good seasons.

Annual Staff hopes for the best.

When trying to decide on a theme for the annual this year, the annual staff really had a hard time. We thought of several things and then one of the staff members, who was a freshman, said something about how welcome everyone had made him feel. Some of us who had been here before had also noticed the change in the atmosphere. We then decided that the change had been from a "me" generation to an "us" generation. That was it! We had our theme ... US!

The Academics section of the Indian-head 1981 includes Administration, Faculty and Staff. These are the people who work hard so that we can have a better education. We sometimes don't realize how important these people are and how much they help us. Let's say, "Thank you" to the Administration, Faculty, and Staff.

The Organizations section includes pictures of the clubs and organizations. Some organizations are represented by artwork because they did not respond to posters telling them where to go and when to go to have their pictures taken. To these clubs I, the editor apologize for not getting pictures taken. To the others, thank you for your cooperation.

A GREAT PROFESSOR WILL BE REMEMBERED

My Prayer To You

I speak for those in this world
Who know you as a teacher and friend,
Who have felt your comforting hand on a
tired shoulder,
Who have come to love and respect you.
I send my prayer and best wishes to you.
Know that you are loved
By more than just family,
You have touched many lives
Teaching through the years.
You brought beauty into my life
In the few years at Pembroke;
You gave your all to us, to me,
Now, in your need and comforting
I offer a word or two to somehow
Brighten your day.

I am with you in spirit,
Praying to my loving God
To watch and protect you.
In his strength may you find
Warmth and security;
Through me, may you know
You have made one life more meaningful
And given a girl the confidence
To become a woman.

Melanie Hinton

Dr. Andre Nadeau, who died Jan. 20 in Laurinburg of an incurable brain disease, will always be remembered by those who knew him and "Mr. Enthusiasm." He lived every moment to the fullest.

His special love was working with the mentally retarded and teaching others how to do so. He did this every year since he came to the University in 1969. In recent years he has also been working with the Special Olympics. It is appropriate that his family has asked that memorials to him be gifts to the Special Olympics Fund at Pembroke State University. Dr. Nadeau loved to officiate and enjoyed teaching others how to officiate. He wrote special columns about it. "A good official always hustles. He's on top of things," said Dr. Nadeau, who believed in giving your all in any endeavor. He was a hustler. Dr. Nadeau died at the age of 64. He would have been 65 on Feb. 4 and would have retired at the end of the semester.

All of us at Pembroke State feel blessed that we had the privilege of knowing Andy Nadeau. He was "Mr. Enthusiasm," who could bring sunshine into any day.

A Friend Who Will Not Be Forgotten

A TROUBLED HEART

The wind blows soft,
The wind blows weak.
It kisses a love song,
It kisses a cheek.
It passes by but I don't see.
I'm too wrapped in feeling
contained in me.
So what if my friend doesn't live any more?
Should I give up life?
Should I shut the door?
I wish he could tell me what it's like to die.
I can't do anything, I can only cry.
If he were here,
What would he think is right?
He'd want me to go on, to live,
to fight.
So blow soft wind,
Blow sweet, blow dear.
Blow wind, blow,
Dry away my tears.

IN MEMORY OF

The Classes section included pictures of you, the student. Sometimes referred to as "mug shots," these pictures are of the students who signed up to have them taken and who waited patiently for the camera to be repaired the times it broke. We, the staff, say, "Thank you" to those who helped us by having pictures taken.

ACCEPT ME
I AM I
DO NOT CHANGE ME, CONDEMN ME,
NOR PUT ME DOWN
ACCEPT ME FOR WHAT I AM.
NO... YOU NEED NOT AGREE WITH ME,
I HAVE MY FAULTS,
I HAVE MY GUILTS.
BUT THAT IS WHO I AM,
PERFECT I WILL NEVER BE.
ALLOW ME TO BE UNINHIBITED;
DO NOT PRESSURE ME INTO FEELING,
WHAT I DO NOT FEEL.
ACCEPT ME WHEN I AM FLYING HIGH,
AS I HAVE ACCEPTED YOU WHEN YOU WERE FLYING HIGH.
DO NOT PUT ME DOWN... NOR MAKE ME FEEL WHATEVER ABOUT ME.
I AM I
AND I LIKE BEING I AM
me!

STUDENT CENTER

It's All in a Day's Work!

Notice the DIVIDED attention in Dr. Sigmon's class.

Remember getting up at 6:00 to go stand in the registration line? And registration started at 8:00.

Melanie Mabb seems to have enjoyed her day.

Students search for necessary treasures in the Bomb Shelter.

Sandra and Allison talk over their day's adventures.

Some classes are more fun than others.

Too much work affects the brain in unusual ways.

A little fun and games is part of the day's work.

Randy enjoys talking to the girls.

Places People Congregate

Now that the hard work is all over, I have several people to whom I owe my sincere thanks. To begin, I would like to thank Dr. Dennis Sigmon for helping me over and through some tough situations. Next, I would like to thank my staff for their support and help throughout the year. Richard Rundus deserves many thanks for his contribution of some art work. Without him we couldn't have made it. Special thanks go also to Kathy Lizotte for her help on this last deadline.
